

Course TITLE: English Presentation Skills

Instructor: Michael Walker

Title/Position : Professor

Institution : Dongseo University

Course Overview:

This course gives you a reliable model for preparing and delivering effective presentations. In the classroom, in the workplace, and in public places, we are often called upon to “make a few comments.” Many people are shy and don’t know what to say. They might not know what to talk about, or talk too much without making a point, or simply be confusing to listen to. This course is designed to help you reach your full speaking potential

Description

Students will learn how to organise talks clearly, write them memorably, and deliver them confidently. By the end of the course, you should be able to significantly reduce your fear of public speaking. We will focus on rehearsal techniques to develop a strong, vibrant speaking voice.

The course will also focus on dynamic movement and gestures to help your speech reach the audience.

The speech model that we will practice is useful for briefings, interviews, addressing a crowd in a public place, and even as a structure for hour-long presentations.
